RECOGNITION AWARDS

Hazelwood PTSA is now accepting recommendations for the "Golden Acorn", "Outstanding Educator", and "Outstanding Advocate" local unit PTSA awards. With each of these three awards, recipients receive a pin and certificate and a contribution is made to the Washington State PTA Financial Grant Program in the name of the recipient. Any person may qualify for these awards (parent, teacher, student, administrator, community member, etc.) if they meet the below qualifications for the award.

Golden Acorn: An award presented to a volunteer in recognition of his/her dedication and outstanding service to all children and youth in the school community. This person will likely have donated their time in multiple classrooms or events and has helped many Hazelwood staff and students. It is to recognize volunteer service "above and beyond" a particular job description.

Outstanding Educator: An award recognizing individuals who have provided outstanding educational opportunities for children and youth that are beyond the normal scope of their jobs to make learning experience fun, beneficial, and challenging. An outstanding educator could be a teacher, assistant, custodian, bus driver, administrator or community member.

Outstanding Advocate Award: An award recognizing an individual for their advocacy work on behalf of children and youth. This person would be dedicated to all children and would demonstrate commitment to helping create strong policies relating to the health, welfare, safety and education of children and you.

Please submit nominations to the PTSA's Awards Committee no later than May 1, 2018. Extra forms are available on our website, or outside the PTSA office. For questions, contact awards@hazelwoodptsa.org.
